The ANC turns 103: Congratulations

At this time of celebrating the 103rd anniversary of the formation of the African National Congress (ANC), the Party for Democracy in Rwanda (PDR)-Ihumure, wishes to congratulate you and the entire leadership of the ANC for continuing to professionally carry out its mandate.

As the oldest and genuine liberation movement on the African continent, the ANC has shown how to fight, how to negotiate, how to win, and finally how to democratically govern for the benefits of all the people. This year of celebrating this anniversary coincides with the celebration of 60 years of the declaration of the "Freedom Charter", hence the choice of a relevant theme of "Freedom Charter and Economic Freedom" by the ANC leadership, to remind all the people of your country and the entire world, the pivotal principles on which your organisation relies to govern South Africa, and to also show and remind that the struggle continues for a better life for all the people of South Africa.

The principles of governance of the people, equal rights by all national groups, sharing the country's wealth, land exploitation by all, equality before the law, enjoyment of equal human rights, work and security, opening doors of learning and culture, provision of houses, security and comfort and finally peace and friendship, set out in 1955 in the declaration of the "Freedom Charter" document are the back bone of the ANC governance, as they continue to enlighten its leadership.

The PDR-Ihumure embraces these principles, and while it joins you in the celebrations of this anniversary, it is however saddened by the fact that many people of this continent continue to suffer the lack of freedom in the hands of their leaderships. We are particularly thinking of Rwandan people who continue to be denied of their basic human rights and the PDR-Ihumure wishes to plea for help, guidance and mentorship from the ANC in order to be able to free the people of Rwanda.

Sincerely Yours

For the PDR-Ihumure

Paul Rusesabagina, President.
